

Reflection & Discussion Questions
Walking by Faith... not by Sight or Feelings
2 Corinthians 5:7

1. Think about a time when you “walked by faith” rather than sight or feelings. In retrospect, what were the benefits?
 - Think about a time when you walked by “sight” or “feelings” rather than faith. What was the outcome?
 - What did the Lord teach you? How will this lesson help you when you have to make future steps of faith?
2. How does the Holy Spirit speak to you when you are facing a challenging decision that requires a step of faith? Are you willing to trust His leading in these moments, even when your feelings are conflicted?
3. What are some dangers of making decisions based on feelings or circumstances?
4. How do you move from feelings to obedience?

5. Since we are to bring every thought captive, does this also apply to feelings? How can you bring your feelings into captivity when you may not be sure what you are feeling at the moment, or when those feelings are continually changing?

6. How do you know if what you are feeling is from the Lord, or a product of your own personality? Will your feelings ever deceive you? How can you discern when this may be happening?

7. How can you keep your mind stayed upon the Lord when your private world and emotions are spinning out of control?

8. How will meditating on those things which are true, noble, pure, and lovely strengthen your ability to walk by faith?

9. For all our physical lives, we have been taught to walk by sight (as well as our other senses). Walking by faith can take us outside of our comfort zones and it can also go against our feelings. Is there anything you can do in your spiritual life right now to make this walk of faith more second-nature for you?
