

4. Deuteronomy 4:15-40 warns against idolatry. Verse 15 has this warning: take careful heed to yourselves. What does careful heed mean to you? What are some specific ways you need to take careful heed in your own life against idols that compete with the place God should have in your heart?

5. Spend some time thinking and praying about the following questions taken from the book God's at War by Kyle Idleman:
  - What person or people matter most to you in this world?
  - Is there a relationship in your life that seems to be the determining factor in whether or not you are happy and joyful or sad and depressed?
  - To what extent does this person, or persons, determine your state of mind?
  - To what extent have you organized your life around this relationship?
  - It's worth comparing the emotions you experience in worship. Though worship can be a quieter and more introspective experience, can you say that you experience feelings that approach the depth of what you experience with your family? Yeah, I know, it's a tough question.
  - Can you find signs of "disordered love" in your family relationships? How would a deeper worship of God affect these symptoms?

6. Deuteronomy 4:24 says, "For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God." What do you think of when you hear the word jealous?
  - What are the negative aspects of this word and what are the positive ones?
  - What does it mean to you, as the bride of Christ, that your Bridegroom is jealous for you, wanting to be first in your devotion, worship, and praise?

7. Spend some time with the Lord asking Him to reveal to you any idols that are competing for His place in your life. Talk to Him about the power they have over you. Confess them to Him and thank Him for His forgiveness. Ask for Him to show you how to "dethrone" them.
